Can the West and East work together if given a chance?

THE COOPERATIVE FORUM invites you to hear and question---off the record---

Speaker:

WALTER G. WHITMAN, Director General of the Atoms-for-Peace Conference, who, many believe, was more than any other individual---responsible personally for the success of the conference. He is Head, Department of Chemical Engineering, Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A member of the General Advisory Committee, U. S. Atomic Energy Commission, he formerly was Chairman of the Research and Development Board, Department of Defense.

Date: Wednesday,
March 28,
1956

Introduction:

GENERAL H. R. LOPER, the Assistant to the Secretary of Defense for Atomic Energy; Chairman, Military Liaison Committee to the Atomic Energy Commission.

Time: 7:45 pm
(We start promptly at
8 and close at 10)

Presiding:

ROLAND SAWYER of the Export-Import Bank, who was Consultant to the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission on Public Information for the United Nations Conference on Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy.

Place:
1110 F Street, N. W.
(2nd door below the Columbia Theatre)

RESERVATION -- CALL District 7-1770 BETWEEN 12 NOON AND 5:30 PM

You will understand, we are sure, that no one can be admitted unless he has asked for and been assured of a reservation in advance.

If--after you have been promised a reservation--you find that you will not be able to attend, it is essential that we be notified immediately so that someone on the waiting list may be privileged to come in your place.

If a last-minute cancellation is necessary, it may be made up until time for the meeting to begin.
